BODY AND TERRITORIES/ CORP ȘI TERITORII

The University of Arts in Târgu-Mureș (UAT), through the Theatrical and Multimedia Research Institute (ICTM), is organizing the 2nd edition of the Latin American Conferences "Multiculturalidad" – CALM, with the theme "BODY and TERRITORIES", from April 6–12, 2025.

CALM aims to provide the university's students, faculty members, researchers, emerging artists, and professionals in the cultural and creative industries with additional opportunities for training and for unlocking creative potential in the field of performing arts.

With each edition, CALM seeks to create new contexts for improvement through its two sections (conferences and workshops), dedicated to researching the performative phenomenon, facilitating the development of new content and innovative methods in the practice and pedagogy of performing arts.

10 invited performative artists, representing five cultural spaces from Latin America – Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Mexico, and Peru – will deliver five conferences and lead 10 creative and exploratory research workshops in the field of performing arts (theatre – dance – performance).
